

Memory Opportunity Referral Package-Part 2

Introduction:

The Jack and Jill Late Stage Cancer Foundation (“JAJF”) is a charitable organization whose sole mission is to provide your family with shared uplifting experiences for lifelong memories. JAJF strives to provide you, the recipient who has late stage cancer and your family and friends a Memory Opportunity, a time to create lasting memories. Memory Opportunities, for example, may include trips, VIP tours/status, special access, privileged guest appearances, behind the scene visits, tickets, perks, meet & greets, and more. The national cancer community has lauded this important “timeout” from the throes of cancer (for the children, the patient and the caregiver spouse).

JAJF will make it possible for you and your family and friends to rack up family memories. The memories will become an annuity, paying out over time. Living in the moment as a family will help them begin to address the inevitable grieving process as well. Life doesn’t end with a diagnosis. The remaining time together should not just be marked by the chaos and throes of cancer. JAJF touches families before death. After death (midpoint of the cancer), JAJF’s true impact is experienced via the memories.

JAJF is the first real world resource and online link families can receive help from when mom or dad are affected by late stage, limited life expectancy cancer. Indeed, JAJF is the pre-eminent source providing these memory opportunities and shared experiences together as a family.
